Thank you for your letter of 14 January 1958 concerning a current review of the job application of Mr. _____

STAT

We appreciate the interest he has shown in our organization but due to budgetary considerations and the fact that we are attempting to reduce our personnel strength, our present recruitment for senior personnel is infrequent.

Mr. _____ file will, of course, be kept in an active status for periodic review against changes in our requirements. If an appropriate opening should develop, we will get in touch with him.

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Mr. Zelenko:

Thank you for your letter of 14 January 1958
concerning a current review of the job application of Mr. [redacted]

We appreciate the interest he has shown in our organization since his original application but cannot in fairness encourage him as to future prospects. Our present personnel needs are almost exclusively in the clerical field and we do not anticipate any significant change in the foreseeable future.

Mr. [redacted]'s file will, of course, be kept in an active status for periodic review against changes in our requirements. If an appropriate opening should develop, we will get in touch with him.

Sincerely,
